Tom, a goodhearted divorce and family court attorney, is the driving force behind Mobley Law Firm along with his partner at work and home, wife Lisa. "I wanted to be a lawyer since high school and have never looked back," Tom says. "Now after 20 years of divorce lawyering I still haven't heard everything—although I have heard a good bit of it!" A family man, Tom is most proud of his three children, Allen, Elizabeth, and Anna and is always there to lend them his support. "Tom is an enthusiastic cheer dad who wore a pink skirt and wig at our daughter's high school cheer squad dinner before state last year," Lisa says. "They came in 2nd!"

What do you love about skirt magazine? "Keeping up with local people and businesses."

How do you feel wearing a skirt? "Sexy and uninhibited. I do it at least once a year. Women love it."

More about Tom...

My hometown: Greenville since 1962.

What brought you to this area? My parents (Olive and Allen) moved us here after adopting me in Miami.

College graduated from: The Citadel, USC Law School.

Pets: Dogs—Lola and Mobley (Pronounced with a long O, different than my last name Mobley pronounced with a short O). We also have a cat, Jill.

I'm inspired by: my paralegals, Andi and Sally.

One thing I never want to do again: Go to Boston with M, L, D, L, J and ?

I am guilty of: obsessing on the inspiration de jure.

I'd like to learn to: work my DVD (with surround sound) without help from my children.

My hobbies: Fantasy baseball and football, running, cooking, watching my youngsters compete in Greenville High Cheerleading and CESA soccer.

THREE things most people don't know about you:

1. I never played professional sports.
2. I'm a member of a two-person band that never practices and plays only once a year to a sold out and captive audience at Christmas.
3. I'm fluent in English.
